

MS Cybersecurity Prerequisite Approved Course Guide

This equivalency guide was created to help prospective students plan and confirm completion of required prerequisite coursework for the MS in Cybersecurity program. The table below outlines example courses that meet the program's prerequisite requirements. Please note that this list is a guide, not an exhaustive inventory; other courses may also satisfy these requirements upon review. All listed courses are offered 100% online.

Introduction to Computer Science

Course Number	Course Name	Offering Institution	Course Website
APC 300	Programming 1	Universities of Wisconsin Applied Computing program	View Course
INFOST 350X	Introduction to Application Development	UW Flexible Option	View Course
COMPUTER 1430	Introduction to Computer Programming	University of Wisconsin-Platteville	Prospective students can check open seats and active schedules using the UW-Platteville PASS Guest Access Portal . Once in the portal, filter by the Computer Science subject, enter course number 1430 , and select the Online instruction mode.

Statistics or Calculus I

Course Number	Course Name	Offering Institution	Course Website
CGS MAT 215x	Elementary Statistics	UW Flexible Option	View Course
U3600-246	Elementary Statistics	UW Independent Learning	View Course
UWX MA117	Elementary Statistics	Universities of Wisconsin Online Collaborative	View Course
U3600-114	Calculus I	UW Independent Learning	View Course